

Weekly Update

This week, our children have enjoyed some fantastic enrichment opportunities. Year 1 took part in an African drumming workshop and thoroughly enjoyed creating rhythms and making music together.

Year 5 participated in an Indian dance workshop. The visiting instructor was extremely impressed by the children's dance moves, and they demonstrated fantastic respect, effort and engagement during the session.

Meanwhile, Mrs Davies has been busy sending out some exciting secret missions to selected classes! Children have been tasked with unwrapping brand-new books, reading and reviewing them, before they are placed in our library. The excitement has been wonderful to see, and the project has generated a real buzz around reading.

Have a wonderful weekend. Mrs Hume

Ellie and the Pony Camp mystery (grey band)

I recommend this book because it is a funny and interesting book about a mystery that happens at Pony Camp. I recommend it for people who like horses and adventures.
