

Weekly Update

We have had a wonderful week celebrating World Book Day. Thank you to Mrs Kinch for bringing her book fair to school. The children have thoroughly enjoyed browsing and choosing books to purchase. The children looked fantastic in their costumes yesterday and Mrs Davies, our English lead, delivered a fun assembly to round off an exciting day.

Music echoed down the corridor this morning as the choir took part in a singing workshop in preparation for a local schools' performance which will take place in couple of weeks.

Finally, have a lovely Mother's Day. We hope you enjoy spending time with family this weekend.

Mrs Seward
